

Hunt Closes $200 Million Committed Equity Investment From Gallatin Point into its Financial Services and Asset Management Businesses

June 06, 2018 01:15 PM Eastern Daylight Time

EL PASO, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Hunt Companies, Inc. (Hunt) today announced the closing of an approximately $200 million committed minority equity investment into certain of its financial services and asset management lines of business by affiliates of Gallatin Point Capital LLC (GPC). No other terms of the transaction were disclosed.

GPC, a private investment firm with a focus on investments in financial institutions, services and assets, brings to Hunt a strategic partnership for growth and expansion of certain of Hunt's existing financial services and asset management lines of business.

"We believe that our financial services and asset management businesses are well positioned for rapid growth and scalability," said Chris Hunt, CEO of Hunt. "We are confident that given Gallatin's expertise as a strategic partner in financial services and the relationships they will introduce to our platform, their investment and partnership will help foster that growth."

"We are very excited to be Hunt's partner and to support its ongoing growth and success in the financial services and asset management industries," added Matt Botein, Co-Founder and Managing Partner of GPC. "We believe this platform is highly differentiated by Hunt's impressive track record in the real estate and infrastructure markets and we see significant growth opportunities for this dynamic and evolving group of companies."

Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP served as legal counsel to Hunt. Goodwin Procter LLP served as legal counsel to GPC.
